

All spellings will be uploaded weekly to purple mash for children to practise. They will then be tested every Friday morning using dictation – a selection of sentences will be read aloud with the spellings within them for children to write and practise words in context.

To practise these spellings you can:

- Write them in sentences using the sheets uploaded onto the website.
- Practise copying each one in different colours for each letter.
- Pyramid practise (e.g. lonely = l lo lon lone lonel lonely)
