Other news

PSHE - This half term we will read the story Angry Arthur by Hiawyn Oram. The story will help us to understand our basic emotions and give us strategies we can use to deal with our feelings.

What we're learning next half term

English

We will be looking at digital literacy this half term. We will watch the film 'The book of Butterflies' and write a story about it.

Maths

We will be looking at numbers and place value within 100, money and time.

History

In history we will be looking at events from the past including famous pirates.

Science

We will be looking in more detail at the changes across the seasons and how day length changes.

RE

We will answer the question "How do we care for others?"
